Sensitised to the needs of the Lady!

Dr Babitha Maturi

Gynaecologist & Obstetrician

A gynaecologist by profession, she revels in relating with her patients. Enjoys helping women live their dreams by helping them deliver their delights. She understands the needs of the women, gives them a patient hearing and of course the occasional medicines to allievate the symptoms of complete womanhood.

She can help overcome the difficulties in conception by facilitating nature with the art of science. Having been part of a world class cancer screening program by WHO, Dr Babitha is well placed to help you prevent the cancer crisis in your life through colposcopy and hysteroscopy.

Dr Ramesh Maturi

Laparoscopic Surgeon

With two decades of experience in surgical excellence and teaching future surgeons, Dr Ramesh offers world class surgical precision and the benefits of minimally invasive surgery for many gynaecological problems.

His expertise spans the entire disease spectrum of the gynaecology from the simplest to the most complex cancer surgeries. He can help in the management of complex fibroids, ovarian masses, surgery after previous caesarian sections and laparoscopic cancer surgeries.

COMPLETE WOMEN'S HEALTHCARE

PRIME

The new woman in this lady on the threshold for greater responsibilities needs to understand the physiology of her body, to enjoy and to lead a full life. She needs to be prepared and should gracefully slide into the new life that marriage will unfold.

THE WOMAN

We make mothering your dreams a reality. Planning a baby, weathering the nine months and making your dreams a reality is our forte. We help bring the necessary gaps between your little chubby bubbly joys.

THE LADY OF THE HOUSE

Grace, Wisdom & Centerstage! We understand the responsibilities that you have while we help you grace the age you reached. We know how to help you weather the ills of aging, recuperate from the toll of helping your children stand tall and your loved one succeed. We give you the potions and hormones to get life back into you.

A comprehensive facility focused on helping women lead a full life.

This centre is an attempt to bring lifestyle issues of a lady along with her health issues under a single umbrella.

We address these issues from adolescence to menopause. ”

ADOLESCENCE

It is the time too many changes happen in the body too fast. We help the child in understanding the changes, monitor the metamorphosis and help them face the world in a new perspective. We make the monthly pains a breeze and prime them for a active unhindered youth.
